

Charlotte E. Christian

CONTACT INFORMATION

Charlotte.Elizabeth.Christian@Emory.edu
1555 Dickey Drive, 327 Tarbutton Hall
Emory University
Atlanta, Georgia 30322

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Political Science, Expected May 2023
Emory University- Atlanta, Georgia

M.A., Political Science, August 2018
University of Houston - Houston, Texas
Focus in International Relations

B.S., Political Science, December 2016
University of Houston - Houston, Texas
Cum Laude with University Honors; Minors in Quantitative Social Sciences and Phronesis-
A Program in Politics and Ethics

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Human Rights, Gender in Politics and Conflict, the Effect of Shaming on Corporations, International Political Economy, Civil Conflict, and International Intervention.

PUBLICATIONS

Shea, Patrick E., and Charlotte Christian. “The Impact of Women Legislators on Humanitarian Military Interventions”. Journal of Conflict Resolution, vol. 61, no. 10, Nov. 2017, pp. 2043-2073, doi:10.1177/0022002716631105.

PAPERS IN PROGRESS

“When to Shame: The Saliency of Human Rights Abuses to Individuals in Cases of Gendered Abuses”

“Domestic and International Influences on Respect for Women’s Rights”
with David R. Davis III

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Emory University Department of Political Science August 2018- Present
Graduate Research Assistant June 2019- December 2020; May 2020- Present

- Currently co-authoring a paper with David R. Davis III that explores how gender-specific human rights violations may be discussed differently by gender-specific (women’s focused) Non-government organizations (NGOs) and non-gender specific NGOs

Graduate Assistant- Grader January 2020- May 2020

- Assisted in the facilitation of tests, provided suggestions and feedback on the transition to online learning, and provided feedback to students on their course essays for Dr. Eric Reinhardt’s class, “Introduction to International Relations”

Graduate Research Assistant August 2018- May 2019

- Served as a Coordinator and research manager for Dr. Jeffery Staton’s team of six graduate and undergraduate research assistants
- Facilitated weekly meetings, maintained contact with campus partners, and prepared reports on the status of ongoing projects

University of Houston Office of Strategic Enrollment November 2017- May 2018
Graduate Assistant

- Analyzed UH enrollment statistics and students success factors to compare with nationally competitive universities
- Recommend data-based policy changes to enrollment and scholarship practices to maximize enrollment and increase school ranking

St. Johns School: Office of Advancement

Summer 2016

Historical Research Intern

- Compiled an extensive history of all St. John's School capital fundraising campaigns from various sources and created a comprehensive report to be used by future campaign organizers
- Organized correspondences from various donors and documented donor's preferred method of recognition

FELLOWSHIPS	Center for International and Comparative Studies Fellow	2014 - 2015
	University of Houston Political Science Department
	Phronesis Fellow	2013 - 2015
	University of Houston Honors College
	Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship Grant	2014
	University of Houston Political Science Department
	Mayoral Fellow	2013
	Annise Parker for Mayor Campaign and Leadership Program

HONORS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

- Political Science Competitiveness Scholarship, 2017
- Provost Award for Outstanding Service to the University of Houston, 2015
- University of Houston Student Housing and Residential Life Award for Best Returning Resident Advisor, 2015
- Peek Family Scholarship for Excellence in Political Science, 2014
- Jessie H. Jones Houston Endowment Scholarship, 2012
- Academic Excellence Scholarship, 2012